What this pack should help improve

- Give leaders a fast, accurate read on project status without over-explaining.
- Keep risks, actions, decisions, and escalations visible in one operating set.
- Reduce the time it takes to prepare weekly readouts and steering committee updates.

Recommended use order

- 1 Start with the Executive Status Report Template to frame the reporting story.
- 2 Use the workbook and CSV logs to keep risks, actions, and decisions current.
- 3 Use the email and escalation templates when leadership or client communication needs to move quickly.
- 4 Use the steering committee deck to turn active project work into an executive discussion.
